Intentional Membership Strategy Prospect Identification (Lead Generation)

10:3:1 Rule

1. Use the "Who do You Know?" handout at a Club Assembly. Actually allow time for people to fill it out (making it clear we're not leaving 'till everyone has some names written down) and then ask them to invite 10 of those people to a Rotary Information Hour (remember the 10:3:1 rule).	10 targets (conversations)3 Prospects (to a meeting)1 Member

6. Take advantage of flexibilities from the 2016 Council on Legislation, (1) such as a Corporate Membershi category, allowing multiple people from a company to become Rotarians, with one being the "Corporate Active" member and the others "Corporate Associates". (2) Or create a "YP-35" membership category that follows the "Rule of 85" dues, meals and attendance structures. (3) Create Satellite club(s) for groups of members that have different need or focus from the standard club. (4) Get creative. Onboarding New Members
7. Create a New Member Orientation program and process to engage members immediately in your club. Early engagement is the key success factor in retention. To follow up your New Member Orientation, use the New Member Scavenger Hunt for a fun way to get members engaged in learning more about Rotary and about your club.
Retaining Members
8. Upgrade Programs Clubs have proven that the club experience (including great programs) is what attracts and keeps members. Programs need to be informative, educational or inspirational (or a combination thereof). Limit or avoid programs by other non-profits (members see those as fundraising requests) unless there is a value proposition for your club.
9. Mentorship Create a mentorship plan to assign an experienced member to work with a new member. Mentors help new members get acquainted and engaged with existing members.
10. Meaningful Service Projects The bottom line of engaging and retaining members is for the club to do meaningful, Rotary-branded service projects of its own (not writing checks to other non-profits). Hands-on, shoulder-to-shoulder service work is where members get to know and bond with each other.
